

December Newsletter

Hello Nevada County Democrats,

Here's wishing you a beautiful December and Holiday season. The newsletter team is working to revise and improve the monthly newsletter so that it is more easily accessible, tech-friendly, and focused. Over the next several months we plan to send out the newsletter in different formats. Your feedback is important, so please let us know what you like or don't like about the next few editions.

Thanks for your patience,

Jackie Finley - Communications Committee Chair

On Super PACs and Corporate Donations

Some progressive politicians brag that they will run campaigns without accepting donations from Super-Pacs and major corporate donors. By doing this they buy into and accept the right-wing lie that Democrats are just as bad as Republicans because both receive campaign donations from very wealthy people. Read more...

Nevada County Rural Highway? Which Highway?

Highway 174! Local - very local - issue! Why do I choose to write about it? Two reasons stand out: 1/ the issue presents a mirror of how our "democratic" society works, and 2/ the result of the highway "improvement" project are very personal. I live in proximity of highway 174, traveling on it frequently. This writing is a reflection on a hearing by the Nevada County Supervisors on October 24th, 2017. Read more...

On The Path To Education For All

Want to hear some good news for a change? The READ Act was approved by the Senate in August. What is the READ Act and why should we care? The Reinforcing Education Accountability in Development Act is a bipartisan-supported bill that will accelerate the impact of U.S. basic education programs around the world in the poorest countries. Education is key in eradicating poverty and developing democratic governments. Read more...
